

The Art you create now could be in the 10th annual exhibit of

Art About Finn Slough

April 2010

This year's theme: Time, Cycles and Tides

Finn Slough Heritage and Wetland Society and the Richmond Art Gallery have, for nine consecutive years, jointly presented the exhibit of

Art About Finn Slough

This exhibition is intended to showcase and celebrate the large amount of art that has been made about Finn Slough. Finn Slough is an historic site, a place where nature and Richmond's fishing history gently co-exist. For decades painters, sketchers, photographers, and writers have enthusiastically taken Finn Slough as their subject. Our intention is to bring together these diverse representations and share them, reflecting these perspectives back to the artists and the community.

We invite all art with Finn Slough as the focus: painters, photographers, sketchers, textile artists, and short written reflections welcome!

Bring your work to the Exhibit Set-Up on Wednesday April 7th, 2010 at the Lecture Hall at Richmond Cultural Centre (7700 Minoru Gate) from 6.30 – 9 pm. The show is open from 1pm Thursday, April 8th to Sunday, April 11th within gallery hours. Work must be collected Sunday, April 11th at 3pm. Opening celebration Friday April 9th, 7-9pm: snacks, speakers & festivities.
